THE LETTER OF RESIGNATION

We publish this morning in full the letter of Senators Conkling and Platt to Governor Cornell resigning their commissions as United States senators. It is the most remarkable official document that has been recently published. It is full of insinuations, unproven assertions and distorted facts. Its tone throughout is that of a querulous partisan, and is utterly unworthy of men occupying the high position of senator. It is a case of special pleading worthy only of a trickster and a bad cause. The letter throughout mistakes the issue. It intimates that they either were compelled to consent to the appointment of Mr. Robertson, a thing they could do because of reasons stated. This is wholly untrue. They were at perfect liberty to vote against the confirmation of Robertson, if they chose. The majority of the republican members of the

OLD TIMERS

What They Think of Indians and Mine Jumpers

We have received a communication from one of the mining towers in Colorado, written by 'Colorado Jim' which gives a conversation between two old miners who have been digging for gold and silver here for the last forty years or the correspondent touches upon a number of subjects but we will give only that portion which refers to the Indian question The miners are Jim and his friend Jake After introducing the question and the Indian proceeds as follows

"How about the Indians down here? Looks like we were about to have our own with the Utes

I will tell you, Jim It does look like it but let's mind with you I think many and big mistakes are at the bottom of it all and further the government has been to many thousands of dollars to handle the Indians' annuities and the business in my opinion When you see these officers appointed who pay their expenses in electioneering times and secure extra salaries to support the party in power we must figure that the majority of them are elected by their influence in behalf of some corporation whose monopoly is [illegible] with us And when the Indians are talked about in these terms as controlled by the government only to mislead the people When you come into considerable [illegible] business transactions you must deal with individuals and not for the government Upon the natives of the soil the government has control The government has not control over its contracts there is a remedy in the power of its agents it is usually expected they can do them justice Do you see what I mean Jake? Exactly you would find that the main facts of Jim's and Indian depredations they would find that the main cause of the trouble was [illegible] selfish motives Now you and I in a day when we first came across the mountains never particularly like we had no difficulty with the Indians and that they were friendly and peaceful but I attribute much in the way [illegible] to the fact coming out there in long story [illegible] to the Mexican the [illegible] and Indians [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

LEGAL NOTICES

BUSINESS DOCKETS

Mr. Agoustin Rivoli expects to open his new store and the Opera House block about the first of June. It is now completed now with the exception of plastering.

Mr. F. A. Nesbitt the landscape artist has large yesterday taking stereoscopic views of Tejon street. He has also completed some fine views of Pike's Peak and Nevada avenue.

There was a steady demand for tickets to the Rip Van Winkle entertainment at E. P. Hovey & Co's yesterday and the remainder of good seats should secure their tickets by Thursday night.

Rather an exciting runaway was witnessed on Cascade avenue about noon, though fortunately nothing. Both the occupants of the buggy were thrown out one of whom sustained quite serious injuries.

Should the showers continue to be as frequent as they have been for the past three or four weeks, Colorado Springs will have but little need for irrigating water between now and the first of September.

Capt. DeCourcey has sold the property on the corner of Boulder street and Nevada avenue, the Grace Episcopal rectory. It will be repaired and enlarged, and used as a rectory by the Rev. Geo. T. Dehoutlitter.

City Merchant, the winner of the running race at Denver on Monday, did not develop any remarkable speed at the race-track, and the fact of his beating Fishdale is quite a surprise to our local horsemen.

Mr. E. P. Smith and his accomplished daughter Miss Edna A. Smith, of Nashville, Tennessee, spent the day yesterday in Manitou. Mr. Smith and his family will be among the summer visitors in Manitou during the season.

A gentleman in this city yesterday received a letter postmarked at Denver on April 30th, and bearing May 1st as the Colorado Springs receiving mark. A delay of fifteen days in a distance of seventy five miles seems rather unnecessary.

Bob McWade will open in this city on Thursday night in Rip Van Winkle. He will remain here three nights, giving on each change of programme each evening. Friday night will probably be devoted to burlesque.

STOLEN OR STRAYED—Two bay mares, about fourteen hands high; average weight about nine hundred; one a little larger than the other; largest branded T on left shoulder, small one branded a little darker than the other, has white face. A suitable reward will be given for any information or the return of the same. Mrs. W. J. McHarrison, 4 Nevada ave. 4-30*

J. H. Newcomb, Highland Nursery. Headquarters for fine hardy ornamental trees. Plumbs, such as Red Magdee, Norway Maple, Ivy vines, Ash, Elm, Sycamore, Chestnut, Walnut, shrubs, Roses, Clematis, Greenbriers, Vines, Small & Vines. Very low forms. Vines.
